TOP ATHLETES

Interested in becoming ORGSU business agents

Top global athletes are welcome here. We value your personal knowledge of event/series organisation and event information needs. This is a unique business opportunity for you.

Event organisers, series producers for all sports, digital marketing companies, sports associations and timing services: our new B2B information system is designed just for you.

Keen on sport and a healthy lifestyle? Please see our exciting offer below.

DIGITAL MARKETING

Event information at your fingertips: event entries, payment gateways, online results, and many more functions. Boost your business with digital marketing tools.

EVENT ORGANISER

"An event organiser is a jewel in the crown of ORGSU concept author Jaromir Horak. "We provide support for an event organiser's activities by her website".

SERIES ORGANISER

Your own athlete database, online entries with race results, actual series rankings for both a season and overall. A major drawcard for your website.

TIMING SERVICES

Do you like to plan ahead with an event organiser on race day? Timing can be provided by your own website through our built-in, custom-designed mobile technology. Suitable for both established and new timing companies.

Every Race may be organised as a business deal between two or more participating partners/companies.

All income generated is divided between partners as per the Race Business Deal – the heart of the ORGSU system.
